This list can be considered a starting point for students looking for psychology-related experiences off-campus. These positions have been available in the past; they may not be available at the present time. Some placements if 12 hours/week could be appropriate for course credit (PSY 593/594 3-credit Psychology Internship) for juniors and seniors, or for PSY 495 1-credit Research Apprenticeship 4-5 hours/week, although most are volunteer opportunities. We cannot guarantee the accuracy of all information, and this list should not be considered an endorsement or recommendation of any specific site. Research opportunities (e.g., #1-9 are most appropriate for students with high GPAs, prior research experience, and an interest in graduate study in Psychology.
